

RAINBOW'S END ACT ONE

Act/Scene pp.	Plot (dot points)	Literary devices (language)- quote and state the literary device and what it demonstrates.	Quote in a sentence - demonstrate what this quote is evidence of.	Overall theme(s)	Dramatic devices (stage direction)	Topic sentence/S
PROLOGUE: Aftermath p.123	Nan and Gladys are rebuilding after a flood	Imagery – “It’s late spring, late afternoon and gloomy outside.”	“She does and Nan gives her granddaughter a hug”	Family	“The lights go down.”	The aftermath of
SCENE ONE(A): The Queen’s Visit p.124	Gladys preparing to go see the Queen	Colloquial language Synonyms Metaphors Dream sequence	“They forced us to leave. Forced us to leave Cummeragunja. Our home.”	Resilience	“The radio fades out as Nan enters.”	Aspirations often
SCENE ONE(B) p.127	Gladys returns from attempting to see the Queen, is criticised by Nan for trying to elevate herself in white society	Metaphors Symbolism Dream sequence	“Gladys get off your high horse.”	Discrimination	“Dolly returns and is listening with interest.”	The pursuit of acc
SCENE TWO(A): OH, ERROL p.129	Gladys showing her knowledge by answering Pick-A-Box questions	Allusion Motifs Dream sequence	“If you spent less time on them quiz shows, you’d know more.”	Aspiration	“Her chewing gum bubble pops.”	Knowledge and a
SCENE TWO(B) p.132	Dolly and Errol meet, Errol tries to sell encyclopedias to Gladys	Symbolism Juxtaposition Dream sequence	“I just want what any mother wants for her daughter.”	Prejudice	“Errol turns back a glimmer of hope. Dolly puts her nose in the air and exits.”	Dreams are often
SCENE THREE: LINO p.138	Dolly looks for items at the tip, dreams about her aspirations, talks more with Errol about the city	Metaphors Symbolism Contrasts Dream sequence	“They’re not for the likes of us.”u	Aspiration VS Reality	“Dolly shoots her a glare but Gladys has a head of steam and keeps going.”	Dreams can be st

SCENE FOUR: HOUSE OF BIBA p.143	Family talks about Papa Dear, Dolly wants to get a job at Trevaks but Nan doesn't think she will get it just because she's Aboriginal	Colloquial language Dream sequence	"A girl from the Flats? I don't even see the town Aboriginals working in stores."	Discrimination	"Hurt, she turns the radio on. Dolly returns with the cardigan that she puts around Nan's shoulders."	Economic opport
SCENE FIVE: THE DELIVERY p.144	Gladys receives news about a delivery, reflecting on past struggles	Symbolism – The delivery symbolizes hope and change.	"This is a new beginning." This quote signifies hope amidst struggles.	Hope	"The lights brighten as the delivery arrives."	New opportunitie
SCENE SIX: THE INSPECTION p.150	The family prepares for a visit from authorities	Dramatic irony – The audience knows the family's struggles.	"What will they think of us?" This quote reflects the anxiety of judgment.	Fear of judgment	"Tension fills the space as they tidy up."	The fear of exterm
SCENE SEVEN: THE TURN p.154	A pivotal moment where aspirations clash with reality	Foreshadowing – Suggests future challenges.	"Things won't change overnight." This quote indicates the slow process of change.	Change	"The lights dim, creating a sense of uncertainty."	Change is often a
SCENE EIGHT: WASHING- DAY BLUES p.158	Daily chores reflect the struggles of the family	Repetition – Emphasizes daily struggles	"Another day, another wash." This quote shows the monotony of their lives.	Routine	"The sound of water fills the stage."	The weight of rou
SCENE NINE: HOME SWEET HOME P.160	The family reflects on their home and its significance	Nostalgia – Reflects longing for belonging.	"This is where we belong." This quote signifies the importance of home.	Belonging	"The lights warm up, creating a cozy atmosphere."	Home is not just a
SCENE TEN: THE BANK VS	Gladys confronts the bank about their finances	Conflict – Represents broader systemic issues.	"You can't take what's ours." This quote highlights	Resistance	"Tension rises as voices are raised."	Standing up again

MRS BANKS p.163			the struggle against systemic oppression.
SCENE ELEVEN: THE BALL p.165	A community event that highlights social dynamics	Satire – Critiques social hierarchies.	“Look at them all dressed up.” This quote reflects societal pretensions.	Social dynamics	“The atmosphere is lively, yet tense.”	Community even
SCENE TWELVE: STORM BREWING p.167	A metaphorical storm represents upcoming challenges	Metaphor – The storm symbolizes impending conflict.	“A storm is coming.” This quote foreshadows future struggles.	Conflict	“Dark clouds gather on stage.”	Anticipating chall
SCENE THIRTEEN: WATERS RISING p.168	The family faces the reality of their situation	Imagery – “The waters are rising.” Represents overwhelming challenges.	“We’re in over our heads.” This quote illustrates feeling overwhelmed by circumstances.	Struggle	“The sound of water swells.”	Challenges can fe
SCENE FOURTEEN: THE FLOOD p.173	The climax where their struggles culminate in a flood	Climax – Represents the peak of conflict and struggle.	“We can’t hold back the flood.” This quote signifies the inevitability of change.	Transformation	“The stage is filled with sound, chaos ensues.”	Facing overwhel

SCENE FOURTEEN: THE FLOOD p.173	The climax where their struggles culminate in a flood	Climax – Represents the peak of conflict and struggle.	“We can’t hold back the flood.” This quote signifies the inevitability of change.	Transformation	“The stage is filled with sound, chaos ensues.”	Facing overwhel
--	---	--	--	----------------	---	-----------------

ACT 2:

Act/Scene pp.	Plot (dot points)	Literary devices (language)- quote and state the literary device and what it demonstrates.	Quote in a sentence - demonstrate what this quote is evidence of.	Overall theme(s)	Dramatic devices (stage direction)	Topic sentence/S
SCENE ONE: AFTER THE FLOOD	The family copes with the aftermath of the flood	Imagery – “The house is a mess, water damage everywhere.” Illustrates the physical destruction and emotional toll.	“We have to start again.” This quote highlights their determination to rebuild.	Resilience	“The stage is cluttered, representing chaos.”	The aftermath of
SCENE TWO: THE MOVE TO RUMBALARA	The family prepares for their move to Rumbalara	Symbolism – Rumbalara represents new beginnings and hope.	“This is a fresh start for us.” This quote signifies the potential for change.	Hope	“The lights brighten as they pack.”	New beginnings c
SCENE THREE: THE BROADCAST	A radio broadcast discusses Aboriginal issues	Allusion – References to historical injustices.	“They need to hear our voices.” This quote emphasizes the importance of representation.	Advocacy	“The room fills with the sound of the broadcast.”	Media can amplif
SCENE FOUR: THE CONTRACT	Discussions about signing a contract for housing	Tension – The uncertainty of the contract reflects broader societal issues	“What’s in it for us?” This quote showcases skepticism towards authority.	Distrust	“Characters huddle around the table, concerned.”	Navigating contra
SCENE FIVE: PAY THE RENT	The family struggles to pay rent	Repetition – “We can’t afford this.” Highlights ongoing financial struggles.	“Money is tight.” This quote illustrates the constant pressure of financial instability.	Economic hardship	“The tension in the room rises as bills are discussed.”	Financial struggle
SCENE SIX: ERROL SPILLS THE BEANS	Errol reveals important information about the community	Foreshadowing – Hints at future conflicts and challenges.	“They’re planning something big.” This quote suggests impending change and action.	Community activism	“The atmosphere shifts as secrets are revealed.”	Knowledge of cor
SCENE	The family rallies to sign a	Collective action – The	“We must stand together.”	Unity and	“Characters gather	Collective action

SEVEN: THE PETITION	petition for rights	petition symbolizes unity.	This quote emphasizes the power of community in advocating for rights.	activism	around, determined expressions.”
---------------------	---------------------	----------------------------	---	----------	----------------------------------	--